OBJECTIVES

The mission of the Department of Music is to pursue musical excellence within a community of grace. The Department seeks to develop 1) leaders in education, composition, performance, and worship, 2) life-long participants in music who are critical thinkers, discerning listeners, creative composers, skilled performers, and worshipful servants of Jesus Christ, and 3) an atmosphere that fosters individual and corporate growth, high performance standards, community service, the spirit of Christ, and worship and praise.

TRADITION OF EXCELLENCE...

For many years, the Department of Music has been recognized for the quality of its programs. Faculty members are performing artists who frequently give recitals, serve as guest conductors, clinicians, or adjudicators and compose or arrange for publication. As a result of the faculty's professional guidance, students are spurred on toward successful careers.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES...

At PLNU, every student is assured of many performance opportunities through the University's performing ensembles. Point Loma music ensembles travel all over the world as well as performing in churches throughout California, Arizona, Nevada, and New Mexico. Students are actively involved in church music programs in the San Diego area as directors, soloists, worship leaders, and instrumentalists. Point Loma graduates are sought after by schools, churches, and businesses because of the university's academic reputation. A number of graduates go directly into teaching positions and many are involved in church music as full-time music ministers. During the past two decades, students have been accepted into graduate schools such as USC, Indiana University, University of Missouri, University of Illinois, Arizona State University, San Diego State University, and many others. Several graduates have been successful in writing music for television and films, and in music publishing and music editing.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Generous scholarships in music are available to students. These are given on the basis of auditions and are renewable. Applications may be secured through the Music department office at 619.849.2445.

PERFORMING ENSEMBLES

PLNU offers a full range of performing ensembles, including the following: Choral Union, Concert Choir, Point Loma Singers, Chorale, Vocal Jazz Ensemble, Anointed Praise, String Quartet, Concert Band, Handbell Choir, Jazz Band, and Chamber Orchestra. Each music major participates in at least one of these groups. Many students from other departments also participate.
