Note: The graduate admissions data is a total of all admissions activity for fall through summer of an academic year. It is computed after the completion of the academic year. The data is gathered by the Office of Graduate Admissions.

Note: Graduate students are defined as all post-bachelors students including credential students.

Note: Re-admissions are students who have taken a break from study and are returning to their graduate program or students who have completed one PLNU graduate degree and are applying to another graduate program.
