

School of Theology and Christian Ministry

Bachelor of Arts in Christian Ministry

Program Review	Learning Outcomes	Where are learning outcomes published?	Assessment Measurement Tools	Criteria for Success	Data Collected Over Time Period	Findings from Data Collection	Resulting Program Changes
1996-1997 and 2003-2004	1. TEACH: Students will understand the principles of pastoral leadership and the administration of church programs at a level commensurate with undergraduate instruction.	Departmental Website	Senior Focus Group	Graduating seniors can describe their understanding of pastoral leadership and the administration of church programs; they can articulate a theologically informed understanding of pastoral leadership and can demonstrate knowledge of the various aspects of	2006, yearly
	2. SHAPE: Students will understand and develop a biblically and theologically informed perspective on the practice of ministry.	Departmental Website	Senior Focus Group	Graduating seniors will articulate the biblical and theological foundations of the Christian ministry and its practices; they will adequately show the connection between typical aspects of the Christian ministry and their foundation in the Bible and Chris	2006, yearly
	3. SEND: Students will demonstrate commitment to pastoral care and personal sanctity.	Departmental Website	Senior Focus Group	Graduating seniors will provide concrete examples that they are engaged in the work of ministry and that their moral and spiritual lives are commensurate with that work; they will provide adequate evidence of their involvement in the practice of ministry	2006, yearly		