POINT LOMA NAZARENE UNIVERSITY

About Point Loma Nazarene University

The university, established in 1902 by the Church of the Nazarene, offers quality liberal arts and professional programs on its Point Loma campus and select graduate and professional programs throughout the denomination's southwest educational region.

Mission Statement

Point Loma Nazarene University exists to provide higher education in a vital Christian community where minds are engaged and challenged, character is modeled and formed, and service becomes an expression of faith. Being of Wesleyan heritage, we aspire to be a learning community where grace is foundational, truth is pursued, and holiness is a way of life.

Nature of the Program

As a Christian institution, Point Loma Nazarene University seeks candidates who appreciate and respect the university's mission in their personal and professional lives. Both on and off campus, we expect our graduate and credential students to represent Point Loma appropriately and ethically. By signing and submitting this application, you are agreeing to do so.

Notice of Nondiscrimination

In accordance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Point Loma Nazarene University does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, age, or national origin. Furthermore, as required by Title IX of the 1972 Education Amendments, Point Loma Nazarene University does not discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational programs, activities, or employment policies. Point Loma Nazarene University also provides equal opportunity for qualified handicapped persons in compliance with the requirements of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the American Disabilities Act of 1990. The associate dean of students and academic advising provide advice and support to students with disabilities. Inquiries and appeals regarding compliance with these federal requirements should be directed to the vice president for student development.
