General Information

The College of Arts and Sciences is at the very heart of liberal arts education at Point Loma Nazarene University. Programs in the arts and sciences are offered through seven academic departments and the School of Theology and Christian Ministry. Course offerings in the arts and sciences are designed to help students explore a wide range of ideas. The College's highly qualified faculty members are professionally active and committed to engaging students in the learning experience. By emphasizing the University's mission To Teach, To Shape, To Send, the faculty challenge students to become life-long learners, to value the process of personal and intellectual development, and to give their lives in meaningful service to others.

Centers

Point Loma Nazarene University maintains several centers, and one in particular falls within the organization of the College of Arts and Sciences.

CENTER FOR PASTORAL LEADERSHIP

Norman V. Shoemaker, D.Min., Founding Director

The Center for Pastoral Leadership exists to enhance the mission of the University through its work with ministerial students, pastors, and the Church. The Center is an educational and service resource designed to strengthen the relationship of the University and the sponsoring denomination, the Church of the Nazarene, and to promote effectiveness in pastoral ministry.

Activities of the Center include oversight of the Master of Ministry degree program, mentoring of pre-ministerial students, continuing education for pastors, and other aspects of Church and University relations including, especially, pastoral support.

Accreditations and Affiliations

Point Loma Nazarene University is accredited by the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) and the National Association of Schools of Music (NASM).
