When submitting your FAFSA or correcting your Student Aid Report (SAR), a signature was inadvertently omitted. Please read the information below and provide signature for yourself, and if you are dependent, the signature of at least one parent. We will correct your FAFSA electronically.

If you are the student, by signing this form you certify that you:

- 1) will use federal and/or state financial aid only to pay the cost of attending an institution of higher education;
- 2) are not in default on a federal student loan or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it;
- 3) do not owe money back on a federal student grant or have made satisfactory arrangements to repay it;
- 4) will notify your school if your default on a federal student loan; and
- 5) will not receive a Federal Pell Grant for more than one school for the same period of time.

If you are the parent or the student, by signing this form you agree, if asked, to provide information that will verify accuracy of your completed FAFSA. This information may include your federal income tax forms. Also, you certify that you understand that the Secretary of Education has the authority to verify information reported on the FAFSA with the Internal Revenue Service and other federal agencies. If you purposely give false or misleading information, you may be fined $20,000, sent to prison, or both.

CERTIFICATION STATEMENT:

By signing, you certify that neither you nor your parent(s) (if student is dependent) have purposely provided false or misleading information. Be aware that the SFS Office may request additional documentation from you in support of your appeal. Your submission and any subsequent approval of an appeal does not guarantee that your eligibility for financial aid will change.
