*"... Let us join our hearts and hands, Help to gain
our calling's hope..."*

Charles Wesley

CLERGY AND ACADEMICIANS :

Please join us for this special Wesleyan Center conference commemorating the 300th anniversary of the birth of John Wesley—

- To celebrate our Wesleyan and holiness heritage of responsible teaching and learning—
- To celebrate our Wesleyan and holiness heritage of vibrant women and men preachers—
- To affirm our Wesleyan and holiness understanding that Christian faith is nurtured and sustained in communal and social contexts.

AMONG THE NOTABLE SPEAKERS ARE—

DALLAS WILLARD — USC Professor of Philosophy and author of The Spirit of the Disciplines and the recently published, Renovations of the Heart: Putting on the Character of Christ

GLORIA DURKA — Professor of Religious Education at the Graduate School of Fordham University and author of the recent book, The Teacher's Calling: A Spirituality for Those Who Teach.

LLOYD OGILVIE — Former chaplain of the U.S. Senate, preacher and author of Facing the Future without Fear: Prescriptions for Courageous Living in an Age of Terror.

LESLIE GRIFFITHS — Superintendent Minister of Wesley's Chapel in London, author of Touching the Pulse: Worship and Our Diverse World and speaker on the BBC Radio's Thought for the Day.

- ANN TAVES — Claremont School of Theology
- PAUL BASSETT — Nazarene Theological Seminary
- DIANE LECLERC — Northwest Nazarene University

On Friday, October 3, conference participants may attend a special conference dinner event, Keeping Covenant, Keeping Community, and on Saturday, October 4, volunteer to be part of a service project in San Diego with Habitat for Humanity.
