

Study Abroad and International Ministries invite you to:

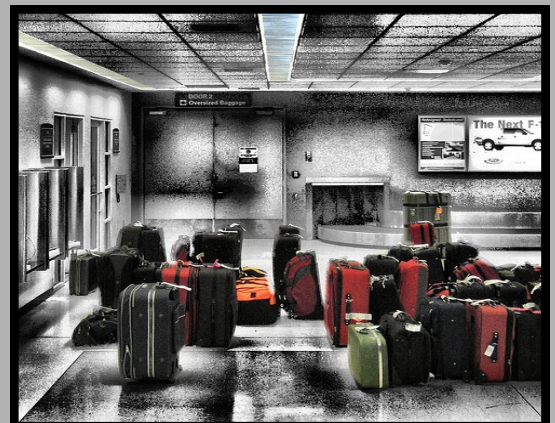

BAGGAGE CLAIM

a place for those recently landed back at Loma

Now that you are back, it is time to unpack and build on your international experience by connecting with others who have been abroad. Come share your stories and explore new ways of managing the joy and difficulty of coming “home.” Each week, we will explore relevant topics and discuss what we’ve learned from the people, places, and cultures we’ve encountered in countries all over the world...and how those lessons have impacted us.

- 9/23 Storytelling: Funny Stories
- 9/30 Discussion: Reverse Culture Shock
- 10/7 Discussion: An Active Relevant Response at Home
- 10/14 Discussion: Faith Questions After LW/YW/Study Abroad
- 10/21 Storytelling: Life Lessons & Revelations
- 10/28 Discussion: Poverty, Inequities, & Economic Realities
- 11/4 Discussion: New Perspectives on Relationships
& Personal Connection to Place
- 11/11 Discussion: Views of the USA and the Rest of the World
- 11/18 Storytelling: Sad Stories
- 12/2 Storytelling: Love Stories

Join us for coffee, tea, snacks, and interesting conversation on Wednesday evenings in the Study Abroad Office (BAC 147) from 5-6pm. This is an open group-- you are welcome to attend anytime during the semester.
