

A selection of PUBLISHED WORKS

*By, Michael E. Lodahl, Ph.D.
Professor of Theology, PLNU*

Date of Publication	Title	Publishing Company	ISBN#
2006	Bent Down Theology: Jesus and the Church in the Writings of John	Beacon Hill Press
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A study of selected stories from the gospel of John in which Jesus is portrayed as "bent down," low to the ground, in humility. These stories then are connected to passages from the letter of 1 John to shed light on how the Church, the fellowship of Jesus' disciples, is to live together in a "bent down" way.</li> </ul>
2005	Relational Holiness: Responding to the Call of Love	Beacon Hill Press	083-412-1824
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Co-authored with Thomas Jay Oord.</li> <li>An exploration of the word / concept of "love" as the controlling metaphor for how we ought to comprehend the holiness of God. This, in turn, becomes the heart of what we understand Christian holiness to entail: wholehearted and full-orbed love for God, for all neighbors, and for God's creation as a whole, including our selves.</li> </ul>
2004	'All Things Necessary to Our Salvation': The Hermeneutical and Theological Implications of the Article on the Holy Scriptures in the Manual of the Church of the Nazarene	Point Loma Press	0-9754729-2-5
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>A monograph study of the Church of the Nazarene official Article of Faith regarding the nature of biblical inspiration, taking historical and theological factors into account. This study is undertaken especially with the issues of the science – theology conversation in mind.</li> </ul>
2003	God of Nature and of Grace: Reading the World in a Wesleyan Way	Abingdon Press	0-687-0-6666-2
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>An exploration of significant themes in the preaching of John Wesley that contribute to a vital and vibrant theology of nature. Issues addressed in this study include: reading Genesis in "a Wesleyan way," creatio ex nihilo, creation spirituality, doctrines of creation and eschatology, entire sanctification, the witness of the Spirit, projected ends of the universe, eco-theology.</li> </ul>
1994	The Story of God: Wesleyan Theology and Biblical Narrative	Beacon Hill Press	083-411-4798
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>An introduction to basic theological doctrines of the Christian faith as they surface in</li> </ul>

the actual stuff of biblical narratives from Genesis to Revelation. This is an attempt to think theologically in the vein of biblical narrative.

1992	Shekhinah/Spirit: Divine Presence in Jewish and Christian Religion	Paulist Press	0-8091-3311-3
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Originally the doctoral dissertation for the Ph.D in Theological Studies at Emory University, this book examines the variety of ways in which Jewish tradition has construed and described God's presence among the people Israel and in creation as a whole. These traditions are then utilized to contribute to a reformulation of the Christian doctrines of the Holy Spirit, of Christ, and of the Trinity.</li> </ul>

\*The School of Theology and Christian Ministry\* \*Faculty Home\* \*Home Page

PLNU | Table of Contents | Search | Contact Us
webmaster@ptloma.edu | admissions@ptloma.edu