

Child Welfare and Attendance Program

// Summer 2011

PLNU offers this unique opportunity for counselors and PLNU graduate students interested in obtaining their Child Welfare and Attendance Credential. The CWA allows current and future PPS holders the opportunity to provide services to students and their families.

Dates

GED 645: *5/20-5/21 6/11 (8-4:30pm) *6/17-6/18
GED 646: *6/24-6/25 7/9 (8-4:30pm) *7/15-7/16
GED 647: *7/22-7/23 8/6 (8-4:30pm) *8/19-8/20
*Friday/Saturday: 4:30-9:00pm/8:00-3:30pm
10 hours of instruction will be conducted online

Program Info

Location: PLNU Arcadia Regional Center
Start date: Summer QI and Summer QII 2011
Units: 12 units, four 3-unit courses

Available in two credit formats:

1. Professional Studies/Continuing Education credit at $175/unit ($525/course) - PSCE units MAY NOT be used toward a graduate degree.

OR

2. Graduate credit at $520/unit that can be used towards a graduate degree

Visit www.pointloma.edu/cwa

Course Schedule

Term	Course	Title	Units
Summer 2011 Quad I	GED 645	The Laws and Professional Role of Child Welfare and Attendance Counselor	3
Summer 2011 Quad I	GED 646	Child Welfare and Attendance Program; Leadership, Management, Collaboration and Parent/Community Partnerships	3
Summer 2011 Quad II	GED 647	School Culture and Addressing Barriers to Student Achievement	3
TBD	GED 688	Field Experience-Child Welfare and Attendance (150 hours)	3

Registration

Register online at www.pointloma.edu/cwa or email enrollment counselor Kristi Toth at kristitoth@pointloma.edu or PPS program director Beth Chamberlain at BethChamberlain@pointloma.edu for more information.

