URBAN TERM 2012

Sponsored by
Point Loma Nazarene
University's

Center for Justice and Reconciliation

May 11 – July 8, 2012

WHAT IS URBAN TERM?

The Urban Term is a total learning and living experience in the city of San Diego.

Students will take three academic courses, live in the urban setting (City Heights), and work in a community service or ministry internship.

The Urban Term is 8+ weeks long, from May 11 to July 8, 2012.

Enrollment is limited.

WHAT IS THE URBAN TERM CURRICULUM?

URBAN ISSUES (3 cr.)

An integrated multi-disciplinary upper division course (SOC 303) that examines urban social life, economic activity and cultural patterns.

Team Taught by:

- Dr. Jamie Gates, Sociology/Social Work
- Faculty associates of the Center for Justice and Reconciliation
- Community Members

LIFE OF HOLINESS (3 cr.)

The life of holiness as embodied in City Heights. This fulfills a general education requirement (THE 306)

- Dr. Michael Lodahl, School of Theology and Christian Ministry

EXTERNSHIP (4 cr.)

“Externship” is our word for an internship that gets students out into the community. We meet together regularly to process and integrate externship assignments and life experience. Credits can be applied toward the internship requirement in several majors.

- Prof. Patricia Leslie, Sociology/Social Work
