

PEGGY CRANE

WORK EXPERIENCE

2013 – 2017

FERMANIAN BUSINESS AND ECONOMIC INSTITUTE
POINT LOMA NAZARENE UNIVERSITY
ECONOMIST. Perform detailed economic research and analysis on a variety of consulting projects. Extensive writing for a wide audience on topics including bioinspired 3D printing, military impact, and local talent pipeline, and San Diego real estate.

1994 – Present

CENGAGE and PRENTICE-HALL PUBLISHERS
AUTHOR and ACCURACY CHECKER. Authored nine editions of test bank for popular principles of economics textbook, as well as supplements such as online practice quizzes and instructor's manuals. Reviewed numerous economics textbooks and their supplements, providing written comments, checking for accuracy and making suggestions for publishers.

1985 – 1988 (FT)
1978 – 1980 (PT)

HOME FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN, San Diego
FINANCIAL ANALYST. Performed detailed financial analyses on new and existing products, services, and functions throughout the association. Served on incentive plan committees to determine the financial impact of the plans. Presented findings to senior management. Developed and implemented branch purchase/relocation profitability model and interest rate risk model. FINANCIAL OPERATIONS ANALYST. Monitored income, expense, and production statistics for Retail Lending division management. Alerted management to any deviations from normal production or delinquency patterns. Responsible for coordinating a $22 million annual budget and investigating variances. Supervised one assistant.

TELLER and CUSTOMER SERVICE REPRESENTATIVE.
Performed teller functions, opened new accounts, and advised clients on association products and services.

1984 – 1985

SAN DIEGO GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY
FINANCIAL ANALYST/PLANNER. Assisted managers of Finance Division with special projects under direct supervision of the company treasurer. Projects included: research on regional economic forecast and search for new investment options for employee savings plan (401K). Selected, interviewed, and evaluated potential managers offering mutual funds and multiple asset portfolios.

EDUCATION AND CREDENTIALS

Master of Science in Economics
Texas A&M University
Completed most of coursework for a PhD in Economics
3.9 Grade Point Average

Lifetime California Community College Teaching Credentials:
Economics
Banking and Finance

Bachelor of Arts in Economics
Minors in Psychology and Drama
University of California at San Diego

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

1997 – Present (FT)
1991 – 1996 (PT)

SOUTHWESTERN COLLEGE, Chula Vista
PROFESSOR. Teach principles of economics courses (traditional, hybrid, and online) to students with a very wide range of backgrounds and abilities, many of whom speak English as a second language. Responsibilities have included serving as a Senator on the Academic Senate, as a tenure review committee member, and as a member of several hiring committees. Program review lead and SLO liaison for Economics. Winner of the SWC Teaching Excellence Award (2003-2004).

2005 – Present

POINT LOMA NAZARENE UNIVERSITY, San Diego
ADJUNCT FACULTY. Teach courses in microeconomics, macroeconomics, and managerial economics to students with a wide range of backgrounds.

1993 – 2006

SAN DIEGO STATE UNIVERSITY and CSU SAN MARCOS
INSTRUCTOR. Taught courses in microeconomics and macroeconomics to students with a wide range of backgrounds.

1988 – 2002

CUYAMACA and GROSSMONT COLLEGES, El Cajon
INSTRUCTOR. Taught courses in economics in a traditional semester format as well as an accelerated (one month) format. Developed and implemented curriculum for accelerated economics courses. Served for three years on the General Education Committee.

1985 – 1992

MESA COLLEGE, San Diego
INSTRUCTOR. Taught business mathematics and economics, including a televised economics course.

VOLUNTEER ACTIVITIES

- Supervisory Committee Member, California Coast Credit Union (2004 to 2013)
- Editor/Contributor to When the Bough Breaks II, a book about Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS)
- Three-time Puppy Raiser for Canine Companions for Independence (CCI)