

VITA

RACHAEL HORN LANGFORD

EDUCATION: M.A. San Diego State University, Sociology, 2008.
Master's Project: Sexuality Education: A Theoretical Analysis of 'Abstinence Only-Based' Policy In the United States

B. A. Arizona State University, Sociology, 1998, Magna Cum Laude.

TEACHING
EXPERIENCE: Adjunct Faculty, Department of Sociology and Social Work
Point Loma Nazarene University, 2014-Present
Courses taught within Sociology program: Social Theory

Adjunct Faculty, Department of History, Social and Behavioral Sciences
Cuyamaca College, 2009-Present
Courses taught within Sociology program:
Introduction to Sociology, Social Problems

Adjunct Faculty, Department of Behavioral Sciences
Palomar Community College, 2009-Present
Courses taught within Sociology program:
Introduction to Sociology, Social Problems,
Human Sexuality, Marriage and Family

Online Associate Faculty, Department of Social Science
Ashford University, 2008-Present
Courses taught within Sociology program:
Introduction to Sociology, Cross Cultural Perspectives,
Statistics for the Behavioral and Social Sciences

Faculty Intern, San Diego and Imperial Valley
Community College Association (SDICCCA), 2008-2009
Department of Behavioral Sciences Palomar College

Teaching Assistant, San Diego State University, 2007-2008
Kyra Greene, Introduction to Sociology
Paul Sargent, Introduction to Sociology

Instructor, San Diego State University Freshman Success Program, 2006
Amy Wong, Introduction to Sociology: Discussion and Analysis

SCHOLARLY
PRESENTATIONS: "Service Learning as a High-Impact Practice" with Kathleen Grove.
Teaching the 21st Century Student Conference at Cal State University San

Marcos, CA. February, 2013

“The Matriculation Process and the Non-Traditional Community College Student” with Marian Ross and Jacqueline Smith. Annual Meeting of Pacific Sociological Association. San Diego, CA. March, 2012.

“A Regional Perspective on Effective Service Learning” with Carol Wilkinson and Val Knox. Annual Meeting of Pacific Sociological Association. San Diego, CA. March, 2012.

“Hand in Hand: A Regional Perspective on Building Strong Programs and Partnerships” with Carol Wilkinson and Val Knox. Published work presented at the 20th Annual Community College National Center for Community Engagement (CCNCCE). Scottsdale, AZ. May, 2011.

COMMUNITY PRESENTATIONS: “Nuts and Bolts of Service Learning: How to Get Started” with Kathleen Grove. Palomar College Professional Development Workshop. November, 2012 and February 2013.

“Service Learning- What’s In It for Me? Charity, Justice and Activism” with Dillon Emerick. Palomar College Student Success Program. September, 2011.

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE: Co-Advisor, Cuyamaca Social Justice Club, 2013-2014
Member, Cuyamaca Professional Development Committee, 2012-2014
Co-Advisor, Palomar Chapter Phi Theta Kappa, 2011-2014
Assistant, Palomar Service Learning Program, 2010-2014
Author, Cuyamaca Instructional Program Review in Sociology, 2012-2013
Development, Cuyamaca Student Learning Outcomes in Sociology, 2012-2013
Development, Palomar Student Learning Outcomes in Sociology, 2010-2011
Member, Palomar Distinguished Faculty Award Committee, 2010-2013

COMMUNITY SERVICE: Member, Advisory Council, Reading Legacies, 2013-Present
Volunteer, St. Vincent de Paul Village, 2010-Present
Volunteer and Palomar Campus Organizer, Oceanside SUN (Supporting Urban Neighborhoods), 2008-2012
Organizer, Cuyamaca CARE Food Pantry: Hunger Action Month, 2011-2012
Organizer, Cuyamaca Campus Election Engagement Project (CEEP), 2012
Volunteer, ESL/Citizenship, San Diego Community College District, 2007-2008
Co-Chair, SDSU Sociology Graduate Student Committee, 2006-2007

HONORS: Finalist for Distinguished Faculty Award, Palomar College, 2014, 2015

Nominated for Award in Teaching Excellence, Cuyamaca College, 2014
Nominated for Distinguished Faculty Award, Palomar College, 2009

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIPS: American Sociological Association , 2007-Present
Pacific Sociological Association, 2008-Present
